

Release of Information

General reports are given to your family and friends when they call to inquire about your condition. Their call will be referred to the appropriate nursing unit where we will confirm your name and give a condition status.

If you don't want this information released, please notify your nursing staff.

For more information on AMMC's Patient Privacy Policy, click here.

For more information on Your Rights as a Patient at AMMC, click here.